

Special Release

(English Edition)

September 20, 1971

ON THE PARTIAL LIFTING OF THE WRIT SUSPENSION

Even before the surreptitious suspension of the writ of habeas corpus, the bodies of victims in such Marcos-type acts of terror as the Corregidor massacre and the kidnapping of Carlos B. del Rosario and Francisco C. Sison could not be produced in the reactionary courts.

The partial lifting of the suspension of the writ of habeas corpus does not in any way diminish the insatiable greed of the U.S.-Marcos regime for power and wealth. It is a flimsy trick to adorn the ugly truth that the U.S.-Marcos clique does not hesitate to commit the most dastardly crimes to keep itself in power.

The daily mass actions since August 23rd have brought the national democratic struggle to a new and higher stage and have aggravated the isolation of the U.S.-Marcos clique. A comparison between the September 13th rally of the Movement of Concerned Citizens for Civil Liberties (MCCCL) and the September 17th rally of the Veterans Federation of the Philippines shows the strength of the masses and the weakness of the enemy. And now the chief fascist puppet chieftain has to take some pretense at heeding public opinion so that his gang can perpetrate more crimes against the people.

The democratic leaders and other persons apprehended under the suspension of the writ of habeas corpus are still in the military stockades. An extraordinary state of intimidation still persists in the most strategic centers of public opinion and therefore still compels several hundreds of non-communist democrats to desist from appearing in public. Everyday that Malacanang and the Supreme Court fail to heed popular demands for the total lifting of the suspension of the writ of habeas corpus strengthens the cause of the revolutionary mass movement.

More massive demonstrations under the banner of the national united front are necessary to assert the people's democratic rights. At the same time, the people should become more prepared against the violent actions launched by the Marcos fascist puppet clique under the U.S. counter-insurgency programme in both cities and countryside.

The Plaza Miranda massacre and the suspension of the writ of habeas corpus have intensified on a national scale the violent contradictions between reactionary cliques, whose conflicts previously seemed to be restricted to local areas. The attempt of the U.S.-Marcos regime to whip up an anti-communist hysteria is nothing but a cover to crush all kinds of opposition, whether communist or non-communist.

The political and economic crisis of U.S. imperialism at home and abroad has reached such a point that in a semi-colony like the Philippines the puppet reactionaries must wrangle violently among themselves. The "show window of democracy in Asia" is all in shambles. The ruling puppet clique is brazenly taking the path of other puppet ruling cliques in Asia. The evils of U.S. imperialism, feudalism and bureaucrat capitalism are unmasked more clearly than ever before.

The U.S.-Marcos regime itself has thrown away its mask of "liberal democracy". Its "democratic revolution" is nothing but a fascist counter-revolution. The anti-national and anti-democratic nature of the reactionary state is completely exposed.

The U.S.-Marcos regime raves about crushing the Communist Party of the Philippines. But experience under the suspension of the writ of habeas corpus has shown that whereas a single communist cannot be definitely identified the die-hard reactionaries aggravate their own isolation by having to assault the entire nation and people. The effectiveness of our underground is well tested and proven. It is bound to improve even further in the face of fascist onslaughts.

The suspension of the writ of habeas corpus has strengthened both the proletarian party and the revolutionary mass movement. The lies that the U.S.-Marcos regime flings at us have only served to stress the truth of our national and democratic integrity. The "anti-Maoist" conspiracy of the U.S.-Marcos clique and the Lava revisionist renegades has utterly failed.

Under the guidance of Marxism-Leninism-Mao Tsetung Thought, the Communist Party of the Philippines can never be crushed. Its ideological and political line makes it invincible. It has a broad mass character and always fights on just grounds. Its main organization is in the New People's Army which is engaged in a protracted people's war. It employs the united front to win over the broad masses of the people in their millions.

Today, the broad masses of the people recognize the Communist Party of the Philippines as the only force capable of leading the Philippine revolution forward to victory.

For the CENTRAL COMMITTEE,

Amado Guerrero, Chairman
COMMUNIST PARTY OF THE PHILIPPINES

September 19, 1971